

COALITION OF STATE UNIVERSITY
AID ADMINISTRATORS

“to avail the state of those talents, sown as liberally among the poor as among the rich, which perish without use if not sought for and cultivated ...” – Thomas Jefferson

Dear COSUAA Colleague,

I hope that you are well, and that you are wrapping up a successful school year.

Past Chair:
Marvin Smith
University of California -
Los Angeles

I'm reaching out today, asking you to renew your institutional membership for the 2022-23 school year. COSUAA membership is by institution and our members comprise the chief financial aid administrator from a four-year state public-funded and controlled university with student enrollments of 10,000 or greater. Your membership fee helps offset the costs of maintaining our website and listserv administration, and supports our conference each year.

Secretary:
Alicia Keaton
University of Central Florida

Speaking of our conference, it was great being together in San Diego in April. After 3 years of not being together due to the impact of the coronavirus, having the opportunity to meet in person, and learn from experts in areas that impact our professional lives and institutions was encouraging and reminded me why I appreciate our membership so much. Thanks to those of you who attended the conference.

Treasurer:
Kay Lewis
University of Washington

As we look toward this next year, your COSUAA Steering Committee is already planning for our 2023 COSUAA to be held on April 22-25, 2023 in Williamsburg, VA at the Kingsmill Resort. We anticipate that the location and conference agenda will offer another great professional development experience for you, our members.

Justin Chase Brown
University of Nebraska -
Lincoln

Beth Armstrong:
Virginia Tech University

During the year, our COSUAA listserv offers you an opportunity to reach out to your colleagues for discussions, information and answers on financial aid issues related to your professional life. We share information, resources, policies via our listserv, and it is the easiest avenue to reach out to all members.

Jackie Kennedy-Fletcher
Indiana University

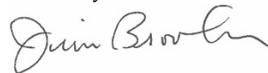

Karen Krause
University of Texas -
Arlington

During the coronavirus years, virtual presentations and discussions became a useful resource, and we want to continue to offer these opportunities for interaction. We are discussing how best to use these opportunities during this next aid year.

I encourage you to complete your membership form on our website at www.cosuaa.org, and submit your payment by check or credit card. Please renew soon but no later than August 1, 2022.

Thank you for your continued support of the Coalition of State University Aid Administrators.

Sincerely,

Jim Brooks
COSUAA National Chair, 2021-23
